

ArtsGraphics Senefelder CA, guarantees its commitment during the development of its activities with base to the Universal Declaration of Human Rights of the United Nations Organization, The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, The International Pact of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, the Constitution of the Republic of Ecuador and the Code of Work from Ecuador.

As a responsible printing industry we have a code of ethics and internal work regulations, which serve as a guide and tool to guarantee compliance with the rights of all human resources working in the organization.

Within our context we contemplate freedom of association, the prohibition of forced and compulsory labor, the abolition of child labor, non-discrimination of human resources, guaranteeing their rights, social benefits and a work environment in which they feel safe.

The organization is aware of and recognizes its social commitment to its stakeholders, coupled with the development of its suppliers, which in turn guarantee human rights of their workers

Senefelder
IMPRIMIENDO DESDE 1921

Reviewed by:

Head of Integrated Management Systems

Approved by:

CEO